

CHRISTMAS

Jesus is Born at Last

He is come! He is here! We have wait-ed for so long! In a world of grief and pain, all the pro-phe-cies seemed vain. Those who once re-ceived them, those who long be-lieved them saw them un-ful-filled and thought God had de-ceived them, but now He is here, you can hear the an-gels' song
Je - sus is born at last!

2. Shepherds run! No delay! Come to Bethlehem and see
Heaven's Lord in human form swaddled close to keep Him warm.
Lying in a manger, an outcast and a stranger.
For your sake He chose this life of toil and danger.
Tell them all today; spread the word triumphantly:
Jesus is born at last!
3. Pack your gifts, Persian priests! Cease your searching of the skies.
Time to leave your homes and ride through the empty countryside
And when you have found Him, give Him gold to crown Him,
Frankincense and myrrh to shed their fragrance round Him.
The star from the east will reveal where He lies.
Jesus is born at last!
4. Son of God, come to me as You came to Bethlehem.
I have waited for so long while so many things went wrong.
Saviour hear me crying for the life undying.
Cradled in my heart I long to see You lying.
Then I'll sing joyously: "He is come as He came then.
Jesus is born at last!"
